Malcolm Allen explains how the sticks with the dive fins work

Hello Folks - This thing is a kayak and the bottom must be on the water.

Joe, as I mentioned, the bottom must be on the water. Were you thinking about what I was going to do with my "Frisbee"?

This is an important message about wearing your PFD!!

It's OK Joe. I've got your kayak-you can walk to shore.

Do I see a Miller "Lite" truck. What a great place to stop & rest!

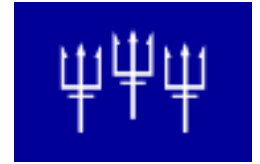

Where did that beer truck go? Come back!!

COMMANDER'S MESSAGE FROM THE HELM

Cdr Elect Judith A. Peschio, P
"E" Mail: japeschio@gmail.com

Dear VBPS Members, Associates and Friends:

As we begin the second quarter of our year, I am amazed at how many activities and events were packed into the first quarter—well attended ABC courses, other educational courses and seminars, meal events, boating activities, and of course, all of the organized group activities. The list just keeps getting longer.

One of the big events that occurred in the first quarter was the launch of our new web site, www.verobeachpowersquadron.com. Heartfelt thanks goes to Bob Borelli who led this project with assistance from Ron Miller, Sue Hamel, Dan Thomas and Bob Scully. The redesign involved much time and effort, along with tremendous cooperation, and the results are fantastic. If you haven't browsed, take some time and look around.

Special thanks to the Audit Committee which included Bill Lavigne, Ken Hill and Frank Bilotta, for completing and submitting a report of their audit findings of the 2012 financials. Their recommendations have been acted upon by the Executive Committee.

John Spilman and Howard Daniels have been busy keeping our building in good shape. Bathroom fixtures have been replaced, and general maintenance is getting done. Thanks to all of the volunteers who assisted John and Howard with maintenance and grounds clean-up.

Librarian, Bev Ford, does a great job of keeping the library organized—no small feat with so many books being used by members. And, if you have received a greeting card from me or the Squadron, it's because of the helpful elves—Hoy Wilkinson, Mary Hill and Andrea Ferguson. Thanks for your assistance with staying in touch with members.

By the time you read this issue of Nautical News, some lucky individual will have won two beautiful deck chairs donated by Sunshine Furniture. We appreciate Elaine Florence-Geyer's help to raise funds for the Squadron. She secured the donated chairs and suggested doing a raffle. At this time, close to $300 has been raised. Thanks to everyone who supported this project.

We close out the month of April by participating in the D8 Spring Conference in Boca Raton, April 26-28. Our Squadron co-hosts a hospitality room with Pompano Power and Sail Squadron, and members Bill Heimbaugh and Bob Scully will be leading workshops on Coop Charting and Public Relations. Thanks to everyone who attended this year's Spring Conference.

It truly takes a team of committed volunteers and a top notch Bridge and Executive Committee to make a successful Squadron—thank you to everyone who said "yes" to get involved. You help us continue to be, "Vero Beach Proud"!

Regards,
Cdr Judy Peschio, P

Greetings VBPS Members, Associates and Friends:

How do we know summer is arriving. We see car carriers on the side of the road. We see less of our friends who have started to head north for the summer. We see a steady parade of boats on the Indian River. We also have fewer lines at our favorite eateries. We also have some of our biggest offsite events.

A big THANK YOU goes out to Lt. Dick Carlin, S and all his Volunteers who helped make Boys and Girls Club Fishing outing another huge success, If you go by the smiles on the kids faces, you'll know why we do this every year.

We had a great turn out for Lagoon Day at the Environmental Learning Center. Our thanks go out to P/C Ed Carr, SN and his team who sold hamburgers and Hot Dogs with the proceeds going to the ELC.

A hearty THANKS goes out to P/C Bob Scully N and all the Volunteers who promoted our organization and encouraged membership and classes at the Vero Beach Boat Show.

We also just finished the Hibiscus Festival. Thanks to all who volunteered their time at our booth. Although we didn't attract as much interest as the boat show we still had interest.

We will be kicking off safe boating week May 18-24 with a ABC class .More information will be coming from our safety officer P/C Dan Thomas SN, who is organizing this year events. Dan also reports his VSC examiners have been hard a work with almost 70 inspections to date.

Let us not forget the Boarman Poster Awards Presentation on April 20 at the VBYC. Tickets are available from L/C Warren Miller AP, L/C Joe Troiano S and Commander Judy Peschio, P. This is a very important event and I would like to see many of you there.

Also when you see an article in your local newspaper, that's our public relation team lead by Lt. Sue Hamel AP hard at work.

Lastly, always remember to boat safely and be Vero Beach Proud.

You're XO,
 Lt/C Warren Miller AP

Hello VBPS Members, Associates and Friends,

Our Instructors have had another very successful year imparting their knowledge to our Members. This is my way of saying thank you to our Educational Team. We are fortunate to have such talent among us. The examination results indicate that we really know something. Imagine that.

The various FREE seminars conducted this year were all very well attended and the feed back has been positive. Thanks to everyone involved. Look for more of the same next Fall and Winter. If you have an idea for a Seminar that is Safe Boating oriented, please let me know.

The Beat Goes On

Hello from your AO,

Well, it has been an interesting four months and I am learning a lot about the inner working of the Power Squadron. I still have a lot to learn so please be patient with me. I can feel the frustration of some of the members when they point out certain mistakes that I have made. I appreciate the help and hope that I will learn from my mistakes.

I would like to congratulate Greg Gerber his wife Linda and their fantastic crew for the wonderful job they did on the Jimmy Buffet Party! The party was a huge success both socially and financially. We had an over capacity crowd and through the efforts of all the volunteers we made it work. It is that type of teamwork that makes for a very successful Vero Beach Power Squadron.

On Sunday April 21st we are having a small boat raft up. It will be held at spoil island SL6 on the Indian River. SL6 is at Day Marker 173 which is south of the Harbor Branch Inlet. Bring a lunch and some chairs. Several people will be launching their kayaks from Wilcox Park which is off Old Dixie Highway in Ft. Pierce. We will meet at 11:00am. All are welcome. If your boat is too big to beach on the island, anchor out in the deep water and we will shuttle you to the island in one of the small boats.

I am looking forward to the up coming months and all the exciting events that we have planned. I hope I can continue to count on everyone to help.

Thanks for your Support,
Lt/Cdr Joe Troiano, S

THE CENTENNIAL YEAR AHEAD

The year of anticipating the 100th Anniversary of the United States Power Squadrons is upon us. It began simply when a man at the Boston Yacht Club in Marblehead, Massachusetts, saw that people buying those newly developed recreational power boats needed special instruction. So effective was Charles Chapman's boating safety course, that when Undersecretary of the Navy, Franklin Roosevelt, saw it, he encouraged yacht clubs from around the nation to assemble in New York. On 2 February 1914, the New York Yacht Club was the site in which, Roosevelt's support brought the United States Power Squadrons into existence.

Since its foundation, the organization has worked with the national government on boating issues. During World War I it conducted classes for the United States Navy and through the years the services of its members have been vital to the US Coast Guard, The National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), and in general the Departments of Commerce and Homeland Security.

Today, the dedicated service to boaters began one hundred years ago by Chapman, lives on in the organization's primary objective. At the national level, on state boards, but most important in the local communities it is a beacon helping to make each boater a safe and confident person on the water

At the closing of the 2013 Annual meeting in Jacksonville, FL on Saturday 19 January 2013, the event was introduced with an impressive presentation of thirty-three parade sized USPS Anniversary Ensigns. District commanders received one to commemorate the year in their home districts. Each squadron can order a parade flag streamer template to be designed by them and to be attached to the district flagpole. The district commander is to return the Flag and Squadron streamers prior to the 2014 meeting. At that time, on the eve of the Golden Day, the opening ceremonies of the Saturday Governing Board will include the presentation by each district of its Anniversary Ensign adorned with the streamers from each of its squadrons.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER Lt. Frank "Tom" Jones, III, S

Did you ever wonder why the Power Squadron has a Chaplain? Why we have an invocation before our meetings and events? The position of Chaplain and the protocol was initiated by the founding officers of the United States Power Squadrons. Was this a religious thing? Were they trying to convert anyone or use the USPS as a front for a religious organization? I think not. The function of the Chaplain is to serve as a beacon and reminder of our base organizational philosophy. That would be, service, service, service, spiced with fellowship. That's what we do; that is what we are ... and we take great satisfaction in our endeavours.' If you want to bring religion into it, remember; all the great philosophies call for unselfish love and hospitality. It is a good thing! We are rightfully so, 'Vero Beach Proud!' Now a quote from Edmond Burke: "All that is necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing. Now, let us do something!"
